THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING

Isaiah 62:1-5

FOR Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.

The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;

and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.

You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;

but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;

for the LORD delights in you,
and your land shall be married.

For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,

and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly* Thanks be to God.

PSALM*Psalm 36:5–10*

Peter R. Hallock (1924–2014)

The Choir introduces the antiphon, all repeat it.The Choir chants the psalm verses, all repeating the antiphon as indicated.Domine, in cælo

YOUR love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, * and your faithfulness to the clouds.

- 6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O LORD. ANTIPHON
- 7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
- 8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights. ANTIPHON
- 9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.
- 10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart. ANTIPHON

READING*1 Corinthians 12:1–11*

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says “Let Jesus be cursed!” and no one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.Assembly Thanks be to God.

After a brief silence the Presider stands; all rise as able for the proclamation of the Gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mel Butler

The Choir sings the alleluias; all repeat them. The Choir sings the verse; all repeat the alleluias.

℣. Lord Jesus, you turned water into wine.

Distill the waters of our hearts, that we may transform the lives of others.

THE HOLY GOSPEL John 2:1-11

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

ON THE third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Reverend Canon Nancy Ross

All rise as able.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary;
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE ASSEMBLY

After each petition:

Intercessor Lord, in your mercy,

Assembly* Hear our prayer.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond: Amen.

CONFESSION

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

You are invited to stand or kneel for the confession.

Deacon Most merciful God,

All* we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider pronounces God's forgiveness of our sins. All respond: Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

Assembly* And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Book of Common Prayer, Eucharistic Prayer B

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS

William Mathias (1934–1992)

Organ:

Everyone:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho san na in the high-est.
 Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The Hymnal 1982 #8-128 © Oxford University Press

Presider We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After Supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
 We proclaim his resurrection,
 We await his coming in glory;

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All A - MEN.

Practicing Gratitude as the Gift of Life Facilitated by Dean Thomason

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 23, 9, 6:45-8:15 P.M., Bloedel Hall

Community dinner: 6-6:30 p.m. (adults $7, children $5, max family $20)
Brene Brown says: "Today we live in a culture of scarcity; a culture of 'never enough.'" It is a vortex of endless insufficiency. There is another way. The antidote is practicing gratitude, not as a whimsical emotion, but as the deep well of true life available to us all. We were created to discover this! How do we tap gratefulness in meaningful ways, and how does gratefulness color all of life? Dean Thomason will offer reflections on such questions, and invite those present into conversation.

Come and help us celebrate their presence among us! Then at 7 p.m., we'll screen the multi-award winning film "SOUFRA" ("dining table" in Arabic). What is advocacy, and how is advocacy a spiritual practice? How might the Spirit be calling Saint Mark's to advocate for those in the Seattle area who are experiencing homelessness and hunger insecurity? Join us as Saint Mark's hosts a one-day retreat to explore these questions. The retreat will take place from 10-2 in Bloedel Hall. A light lunch will be served. We will focus on three topics: understanding what faith-based advocacy is and where it finds its meaning and grounding; exploring the history of homeless/hunger advocacy at Saint Mark's, and forming a plan for how we might respond now to the needs of the broader community. To RSVP or for questions, contact The Rev. Cristi Chapman, cchapman@saintmarks.org or David Wagner, akdavid710@gmail.com. Register at saintmarks.org/retreat.

Raising the Roof: Immigration and Christian Responsibility – Sanctuary at Saint Mark's welcomes The Rev. Nancy Frausto

SATURDAY, FEB. 16, 9 A.M. – 12:30 P.M., Bloedel Hall
(Rev. Frausto will also preach at all morning services on Sunday, Feb. 17 and will be part of the "Friends Talking" Forum with Dean Thomason at 10:10 that morning.)

The Rev. Nancy Frausto of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Long Beach, California raised the roof at General Convention last summer! A founding member of the Diocese of Los Angeles Sanctuary Task Force and a Dreamer (DACA recipient), she is a powerful preacher and teacher and witness to the power of God's liberating love. Her workshop at Saint Mark's brings together personal story, the state of immigration in our country, and our responsibility and action as Christian community. Come be part of the conversation!

A Commemorative Event for Seattle Civil Rights Leader Edwin T. Pratt

SATURDAY, FEB. 2,
2 P.M., Cathedral Nave

Saint Mark's will honor the legacy of Seattle civil rights leader Edwin T. Pratt, featuring speakers from the community and special guests, including Michelle Merriweather of the Urban League; The Rev. Dr. Phyllis Beaumonte; King County Councilmember Larry Gossett; and Pratt's daughter, Miriam Pratt Glover.

Pratt was assassinated at the door of his Shoreline home almost 50 years ago. In the 1960s he was the Executive Director of the Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle, establishing initiatives to confront housing discrimination, school segregation, employment bias and police brutality. An Episcopalian, he was a personal friend of Saint Mark's Dean John Leffler. Following Pratt's murder, the Mayor declared a day of mourning. His memorial service was the largest ever held at Saint Mark's; his remains are inurned in the Chapel of the Resurrection. With Pratt's death, the city of Seattle lost a great leader, the marginalized in our area lost an effective advocate, and our Diocese lost a trusted member who helped navigate the uncertainties of the late sixties.

Dean Thomason-hosted book conversation on Meacham's The Soul of America continues

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 19, 7-8:30 P.M., (And previously Jan. 15), Leffler Living Room

Pulitzer-Prize winning author Jon Meacham has written a compelling assessment of our current political and social climate in light of historical reflections, offering us a beautiful invitation to summon our "better angels." Meacham writes: "The good news is that we have come through such darkness before." Meacham and Dean Thomason attended college together at Sewanee, later serving on the University's Board of Trustees together in the late 1990s. Books available for purchase in the Cathedral Shop.
