THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER ♦ MAY 12, 2019

CATHEDRAL DAY 2019!

THIS SATURDAY, MAY 18, 11:00 A.M.–3:00 P.M.

Everyone's invited—mark your calendar for this day of fun and festivities at Saint Mark's Cathedral in Seattle. The day starts with a grand procession of clergy, choristers and confirmation candidates. It's a day of blessings!

Following the service, enjoy food, fun, and festivities. Two magic words: food trucks! Everyone who registers for Cathedral Day will receive a voucher for a free lunch entrée from one of three food trucks parked in front of the cathedral porch. Jump in the inflatable bouncy house, play ladder golf and other games on the front lawn, pedal a bicycle to make a yummy smoothie, have your face painted, launch a paper airplane from the organ loft, and much more!

Saint Mark's people are especially encouraged to come and help show hospitality to the hundreds who attend and may not be familiar with the facilities here. And if you'd like to volunteer to help out in a more formal way, please contact Virginia Lenker, Cathedral Day Coordinator, at vlenker@gmail.com

Please register online (it's free!) at <https://cathedral-day-2019.eventbrite.com>

Newcomers and Inquirers Brunch

TODAY, MAY 12, 12:30 P.M., Diocesan House, 1551 10th Ave E. (Meet at the back of the nave to walk over together.)

Perhaps you are new (or, relatively new) to Saint Mark's over these last several months. Perhaps you attended one of our Newcomer Coffee Hour sessions, or recently completed the Inquirers Class. If either is true, please come join us for Sunday Brunch on May 12, 2019. Enjoy good food and fellowship! Come get to know members of Saint Mark's clergy, vestry, staff and congregation members. We will gather after the 11 a.m. service, around 12:30 p.m., and stroll to Diocesan House, three buildings north of the cathedral. We hope you can join us for a pleasant meal and an opportunity to ask questions, share reflections, and find out more about our congregation and faith experiences.

SUNDAY FORUMS

Vestry Update at Today's Sunday Morning Forum

TODAY, MAY 12 (& MAY 19) 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

The wardens and vestry will provide updates on a variety of topics including financial update, exciting news on facilities projects, Safeguarding policies and key distribution, and others. All are welcome. Contact Senior Warden Julia Logan with questions: jmciverlogan@me.com

Next Sunday, May 19, renowned Seattle artist Lawrence Pitre will talk about his body of work, including his series "We Are One," which will be on exhibit in the Cathedral Nave starting next weekend and continuing through June 20. Contact Vi Lynk with questions: vilynk@mac.com

Active Assailant and Violence on Faith-Based Properties: Proactive and Reactive Readiness

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 9 A.M.–2:30 P.M., Bloedel Hall. Fee: $15, includes lunch

In the light of both recent and historical events, Saint Mark's Cathedral will host this important emergency preparedness workshop. The workshop will look at the history of violent attacks on places of worship, strategies of prevention and de-escalation, and protocols for when the unthinkable happens. Anyone interested in the topic is encouraged to attend; Clergy, Staff, Vestry, Ushers, Greeters, any other front-line volunteers, and leadership of Choirs and Children & Youth Ministries are particularly urged to participate. To register, visit saintmarks.org/emergency

Cathedral Book Discussion Group

TODAY, MAY 12, 2019, 12:30 P.M., Cathedral House 209

John R. Rice was one of the leading fundamentalist voices in the twentieth century. In The Sword of the Lord: the Roots of Fundamentalism in an American Family, his grandson, Saint Mark's parishioner and vestry member Andrew Himes, weaves his family history with American history and thought to show how fundamentalist Christianity developed out of these historic events and was a reaction to them. Andrew will join our book discussion on May 12, following the 11:00 service, in Cathedral House Room 209. Questions: Karen Knudson: knudsonkn@hotmail.com

Hymn Sing to support Seattle Service Corps!

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 11 A.M.-12:30 P.M., Cathedral Nave

Sing along with Seattle Service Corps! Join talented SSC musicians and sing your favorite hymns in the nave, Saturday, May 25 from 11 a.m.

to 12:30 p.m. Coffee and treats will be served. Donations to support this important ministry will be accepted.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Saint Mark's Heritage Sunday

SUNDAY, MAY 26, 2019

As a special celebration during the Easter Season we will remember those who've gone before us in this place, and celebrate those whose longevity and leadership among us is a source of inspiration. Former Dean, The Rt. Rev. Cabell (Cabby) Tennis will be our preacher, and we will say special prayers at the 8 a.m. and 9 a.m. services honoring the legacy of those who've gone before. At the 11 a.m. Cathedral Eucharist, we will:

- ◆ Feature prayers, canticles, and hymns drawn from earlier editions of the BCP and Hymnal.
- ◆ Recognize those who have been members of Saint Mark's Cathedral for 25 years or more, and those who've reached the auspicious age of 80 years or more.

Following the 11 a.m. service, there will be a catered lunch for members of the Cathedral Legacy Society and in honor of those recognized during the service. We will have several relics from the cathedral archives on display. To RSVP for the lunch or for more information, email Erik Donner at edonner@saintmarks.org or call the church office.

Episcopal People of Color Gathering

SUNDAY, MAY 26, 2019, 12:30 P.M., Cathedral House Room 210 (Large Conference Room)

May 26 is the next monthly meeting for this group, which is for queer, trans, and straight people of color interested in exploring questions of racial, cultural, and gender identities as they relate to experiences of faith and life. This ministry is led by POC members of Saint Mark's and is for any POC interested in the work of decolonizing their Christianity, practicing anti-racism from a POC perspective, and honoring queer-centered theology as these topics relate to personal identity and lived experience. It starts with a short liturgy, followed by a potluck meal and a safe space for those exploring what it means to be a person of color inside a white majority church. Feel free to bring a dish to share for the meal, and feel free to join in if you can't—there will be plenty. For more information, contact Canon Jennifer Daugherty at jkdaugherty@saintmarks.org

Compline "Unvested"

SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 3:00 P.M., The Deanery, 901 Federal Ave E., Seattle 98102

The Compline Choir invites you to join us for music, food, and refreshments at the Deanery, the home of the Very Rev. Steven L. & Kathy Thomason, just a few short blocks from Saint Mark's Cathedral. We seek to raise $3,000 to close the gap on our England pilgrimage fundraising. Compline "Unvested" features a vocal sextet from the Compline Choir that will present an intimate, close-harmony concert, featuring Spirituals and some spectacular "Folk Songs and Fantasies" as arranged for the King's Singers. Those who attend are asked to make a gift in support of our England Pilgrimage. Space is limited. You must RSVP to Scott Kovacs at president@complinechoir.org by May 25.

20s/30s Hike After Church

SUNDAY, JUNE 9, 2019, 12:30 P.M., Mason Lake Trail (meet at Saint Mark's to carpool together)

Hit the trail with a group hike to Mason Lake. We'll meet at Saint Mark's after church and carpool to the Ira Springs trailhead. Please be comfortable with hiking for six miles. Pack snacks/lunch and appropriate gear (hiking shoes, water bottle, rain jacket and layers, sunscreen, hat). Estimated return to Seattle by 6:30 p.m. RSVP encouraged. Contact Emily Meeks at emcmeeks@gmail.com or Dave Wingate at d.f.wingate@gmail.com

Cathedral Chairs as an Eastertide Memorial Gift

If you receive emails from the cathedral, you should have recently received an invitation from Dean Thomason to make a gift in memory of a loved one in the form a cathedral chair to furnish the nave as some of our pews near the end of their usable life. The cost of a chair and memorial plaque, which will last for decades to come, will be approximately $475. You will hear more about this in the coming weeks. (To sign up for emails, please visit saintmarks.org/news and follow the signup link.)

TWO AMAZING OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUTH THIS SUMMER!

Camp in the Cascades: Six Days at Camp Huston for Grades 9 through 12

JULY 14–20, 2019, Camp Huston, Gold Bar, WA; Registration: $500 (partial scholarships & early-bird discounts available)

Join teens from across the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia as we explore how loving one another is a pathway to peace. We'll enjoy small group conversations, speaker panels, workshops, and daily worship to create a sense of togetherness and to form authentic friendships. This is also a classic camp experience with games, a dance, a variety show, and activities like swimming, crafts and archery. If you need some down-time, there will be plenty of chances to relax or to go for an exploratory hike in the beautiful surrounding forests of Camp Huston. For more information and to register: <https://six-day-at-camp-huston.eventbrite.com>

Pilgrimage on the Peninsula: Youth Creation Care Pilgrimage for Grades 9 through 12

AUGUST 4–10, 2019. Beginning in Seattle & ending at La Push, WA; Registration: $600 ($60 Down-Payment, $540 final payment due in June; partial scholarships available)

Let's take in the beauty of God's creation on our first-ever youth pilgrimage on the Olympic Discovery Trail. Teen pilgrims will start at Saint Mark's Cathedral and then head west, hiking daily in the mornings; enjoying field-trips, boating and other activities in the afternoon; resting at "waystations" each night; and finally reaching the shores of the Pacific Ocean. Along the way we will hear inspirational stories about what teens and adults are doing to stem climate change. We are delighted that the former Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, The Rt. Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori, who has a Ph.D. in Oceanography, will be joining us to share her unique perspective as both a faith leader and a scientist. The cathedral is currently accepting applications for part-time work in the Child Care Center for Sunday mornings and special events. For more information, requirements, and how to apply, please visit saintmarks.org/employment. And if you know someone who might be interested, please reach out to them and share that link!

"ON SAINT MARK'S CATHEDRAL"

This week's video by David Wild is slightly longer than most in the series: "On the Mighty Flentrop" features Canon for Cathedral Music Michael Kleinschmidt giving you a brief introduction to the workings of our beloved organ. And if you stick with it, there's a surprise cameo at the very end! You may watch it on the Cathedral's Facebook page, its YouTube account, and at saintmarks.org/video
