Turning the Church Inside-Out— Liminal Spaces Where Jesus is Found: A Workshop for Clergy & Lay Leaders

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 9:30 A.M.–3 P.M.,

The Rev. Dr. Ray Pickett has a proposition for the Church to consider: "These are challenging times that call [us] to mobilize the Church to be more engaged in [our] communities and in the struggle for justice." What does it look like for congregations to work for God's justice in the context of the communities in which we live, and move, and have our being?

Using a model for faith-based community organizing grounded in scripture, Dr. Pickett will invite participants to explore ways to discover Jesus in unlikely places, and have our hearts turned in life-giving and radical ways. Dr. Pickett is the Rector (President) of Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkeley, CA, and has been a professor of New Testament for more than twenty years. He has also been deeply committed to faith-rooted community organizing, equipping individuals and communities of faith to take risks, collaborate with others, and act on our faith to make a difference in our communities.

Workshop is free, but pre-registration is required. Visit saintmarks.org/workshops to register. Final day to register is Monday, June 10.

Liturgical Minister Scheduling System Launched

We are excited to announce the launch of a new ministry scheduler system for those involved in liturgical ministries: Ministry Scheduler Pro. Several ministries have already begun using the system, with others being added soon. This new system will allow for streamlined communication among ministry teams, more efficient methods of reporting availability, requesting substitutes, volunteering for open spots, etc. It is especially helpful for those in multiple ministries and who have family members who also serve. Information for each ministry, including schedules, rosters, and resource information, is visible via a Web Terminal and mobile app on iPhone and Android. You will receive an email from Cathedral Sacristan & Head Verger Michael Seewer with log-on information when your ministry is added to the system. Contact Michael Seewer (mseewer@saintmarks.org), or your ministry leader, if you have any questions. Thank you!
