TRINITY SUNDAY ♦ JUNE 16, 2019

Diocesan Ordination Liturgy

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 7:00 P.M., Cathedral Nave

All are invited to attend this year's diocesan ordinations, when—God willing and the people consenting—Bishop Rickel will ordain three new priests, including former Saint Mark's staff member Christopher McPeak. A reception will follow.

Baccalaureate Sunday

NEXT SUNDAY, JUNE 23, during and after the 9:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist service

We will recognize and bless high school, college, and other post-secondary program graduates on Sunday, June 23 during the 9 a.m. service. A special reception recognizing all graduates will be held in Leffler Living Room after the service. If you or someone you know is graduating this summer and would like to be recognized, please send their names and graduation information to Nicole Silvernale, nsilvernale@saintmarks.org by Tuesday, June 18 at 5 p.m.

Education for Ministry registration for 2019/20

Do you want to go deeper into your faith in an intense, ongoing way? Do you want to form lasting connections with others who also seek that connection? Consider registering for Education for Ministry (EfM). EfM is a four-year program for lay people to study scripture, church history, and modern theology. Classes connect the material with church tradition, personal experiences, individual beliefs, and current events. Three different classes meet weekly September to June at Saint Mark's: Sundays, 6:30–8:30 p.m.; Mondays, 10 a.m.–12:30 p.m.; or Mondays, 6:30–8:30 p.m. Each class is limited to 12 people; enrollment starts now and ends in early August or when classes are full. Tuition, including books, is $375. Learn more at <http://efm.sewanee.edu/>. Please inquire by contacting clergy or class mentors: Sunday evening: Penelope Jackson, pbjackson@mac.com; Monday morning: Maria Coldwell, mvcoldwell@hotmail.com; Monday evening: Tom Hayton, tomhayton@yahoo.com.

Evangelist Banner for Pentecost

First displayed at Saint Mark's in 2017, a striking banner depicting the symbols of the four evangelists (the “four living creatures” from the book of Ezekiel) returns to the reredos screen for the season after Pentecost. It was made by Northwest textile artist and sculptor Margaret Hays (1931–2016) in the 1980s, and was repaired and restored in 2017 by Saint Mark's members Sandra Piscitello and Jo Ann Bailey, and Diocesan Altar Guild chair Sherry Garman. After the service, feel free to look closely at the exquisite details worked into the surface.

Sunday Forum: Images of the Trinity

TODAY, SUNDAY JUNE 16, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

The Athanasian Creed says of the Holy Trinity, “The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible, the Holy Spirit incomprehensible.” If that's the case, why explore something that can never be understood? Come discover how in the midst of unknowing, the living God continues to reveal God's work in the world...including and especially in those mundane and mysterious places. Questions: The Rev. Canon Nancy Ross nross@saintmarks.org or The Rev. Cristi Chapman cchapman@saintmarks.org

Venmo from the Pews!

There's a new, easy way to make online contributions. You can now use Venmo to make a one-time gift or pay a pledge to Saint Mark's. From the app, search for @SaintMarksCathedralSeattle. Then, enter the amount of your gift, a short note, and submit your payment. It's that simple! This is a great option for people who don't carry cash yet still want to make a gift of gratitude during today's Eucharist. Try it today! The Venmo app is available in the Apple Store and through Google Play. Please contact The Rev. Cristi Chapman (cchapman@saintmarks.org) or Erik Donner (edonner@saintmarks.org) if you have questions or feedback.

Underhill House Listener Training

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 12:00–2:30 P.M., Underhill House (6 blocks south of St Mark's: Republican & 10th Ave E.) Underhill House, a quiet place to pause for prayer, is offering its next Listener Training on Wednesday, June 19 from 12:00 p.m.–2:30 p.m. Come consider whether you'd like to greet, listen and pray with our guests once or twice a month, Wednesdays or Thursdays on Capitol Hill near Broadway and Republican. (Enter through the side courtyard of All Pilgrims Christian Church.) Come and discern—no commitment necessary to attend training. If you have questions or would like to sign up, please contact The Rev. Susan Dean at susan@underhillhouse.org. To learn more please visit our web site at www.underhillhouse.org/partners.

“A Concert of Hope” to benefit the ROOTS project

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 7:30 P.M., Cathedral Nave

To celebrate The ROOTS Project's tenth anniversary, Oscar-winning world music ambassador, Yuval Ron and his Ensemble, joined by Seattle Jewish Chorale, African dancer Selorm Tamakloe, and Anyieth D'Awol, Founder of The Roots Project, will present an interfaith music and dance performance at 7:30 pm June 22. All proceeds will benefit The ROOTS Project in South Sudan. Concert tickets are available in advance through Brown Paper Tickets:

<https://rootsbenefitconcert.brownpapertickets.com>

A discount is offered to Saint Mark's members—just select the “Saint Mark's Cathedral” option when you purchase tickets online.

Faith Action Network Annual Spring Summit

SUNDAY, JUNE 23, 2 TO 4 P.M., Bloedel Hall

Please join advocates throughout the Puget Sound region for the annual Spring Summit on Sunday, June 23. We will be gathering in Bloedel Hall from 2 to 4 PM. F.A.N. summits offer a time for reflection and connection. Learn about upcoming opportunities and ways that you and your faith community can make a significant impact at the policy level. We'll share great victories from the state legislative session, updates from Congress, local organizing opportunities, and meet in strategy groups around the issues of immigration, climate change, economic justice, criminal justice, healthcare, and more. Visit <http://bit.ly/2019PugetSoundSummit> to RSVP.

Sharing the Abundant Table:

Dinner to benefit the Seattle Service Corps

MONDAY, JUNE 24, 6:30–8 P.M., Leffler Living Room

Join Seattle Service Corps for dinner and an engaging conversation on learnings from the year. To spur discussion, the corps has been reflecting on what it means to live into our baptismal covenant to fight hunger. Enjoy the many talents each corps member brings to the table, and a dinner of organic, locally sourced food. All are invited, but space is limited. Please RSVP to aconley@saintmarks.org. Suggested donation: $50/plate.

Time to Show Your Pride!

PRIDEFEST CAPITOL HILL: SATURDAY, JUNE 29

SEATTLE PRIDE PARADE: SUNDAY, JUNE 30

The Saint Mark's community will celebrate Pride this year at two events. For the first time we will have a booth at the PrideFest Capitol Hill on Saturday, June 29. And on Sunday, you will once again have the opportunity to walk with other Episcopalians in the Seattle Pride Parade. If you want to participate in the parade, sign up at the Welcome Table at the back of the nave, or visit the diocesan website, ecww.org, and follow the link to register online. Location to meet for the parade will be announced later. Stop by our booth at Pride Fest! If you'd like to help out at the booth, please let Deacon Earl Grout know: egrout@saintmarks.org

Courage on the Threshold: Embracing Life's Changes with Integrity and Grace—A Courage and Renewal Retreat

FRIDAY, JULY 12 THROUGH SUNDAY, JULY 14,

St. Andrew's House Retreat & Conference Center, Union, WA

If you find yourself poised between the known and the unknown, between what has been and what comes next, we invite you to join us for a weekend Circle of Trust retreat to explore the theme of threshold. In the retreat, we will contemplate what it means to stand on the threshold with courage and attentiveness, listening for the next congruent step, and honor the threshold moments in our lives as an integral part of the process of transformation and change. We hope you'll join us! Offered by Courage & Renewal facilitators Emily Chamberlain and Karen Harding. Registration deadline is July 1. For more information and details about how to register: www.couragerenewal.org/events/threshold2019

Cathedral Book Discussion

SUNDAY, JULY 14, 12:20 P.M., Cathedral House Room 209

Join us for a discussion of the new book by best-selling author, columnist and PBS star, David Brooks. The Second Mountain, The Quest for a Moral Life explores how we might live moral lives in our complicated, diverse and often-confused modern society. Brooks argues that, if we have been fortunate enough to build an adult life for ourselves, we often fall into a valley in which the verities which have guided our lives seem inadequate—therefore we are called to climb our “second mountain.” This new peak

EARTH DAY NORTHWEST 2020

Earth Day Northwest 2020 (www.earthdaynw2020.org) is a coalition of businesses, non-profit organizations, indigenous tribal leaders, educational institutions, and faith communities in the Pacific Northwest, that are joining together to protect and preserve the natural environment, commit to equity and inclusion, and ensure that our cities and towns are safe, livable, and healthy. Saint Mark's Cathedral is a member of EDNW2020, because taking care of God's gift—our planet—is a theological issue requiring our active participation. If you are interested in learning more and/or being part of a Creation Care ministry at Saint Mark's, please contact Marjorie Ringness at marjorie@ringness.org is more about our relations with others and our duty to people and organizations outside ourselves. He tells the stories of some who are passionately doing for others rather than themselves. This book engages and challenges us. Rev. Dennis Tierney will be our discussion leader. For information contact Pearl McElheran, pmcelheran@comcast.net

Choir School Summer Camp: Psallite!

JULY 15–19, 2019, with participation in morning worship Sunday, July 21.

The Choir School welcomes boys and girls, regardless of church affiliation, who are interested in singing beautiful and exciting music of the Christian faith in the striking cathedral setting, while growing as musicians and children of God. Camp activities include joyful singing of glorious music in the beautiful cathedral, daily guests specializing in art, drumming, and composition, field trips and outdoor activities, and visual art projects. July 15–19; 9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m., fee: $250. Scholarships are available. Contact Madeleine Stephens mstephens@saintmarks.org with questions. More information and registration at: saintmarks.org/choircamp

Liturgical Minister Scheduling System Launched

We are excited to announce the launch of a new ministry scheduler system for those involved in liturgical ministries: Ministry Scheduler Pro. This new system will allow for streamlined communication among ministry teams, more efficient methods of reporting availability, requesting substitutes, volunteering for open spots, etc. Information for each ministry, including schedules, rosters, and resource information, is visible via a Web Terminal and mobile app on iPhone and Android. You will receive an email from Cathedral Sacristan & Head Verger Michael Seewer with log-on information when your ministry is added to the system. Contact Michael Seewer (mseewer@saintmarks.org) or your ministry leader if you have any questions. Thank you!

"ON SAINT MARK'S CATHEDRAL"

In this week's video, titled simply "On Blessings," Dean Steve Thomason and Canon Jennifer King Daugherty reflect on what it means to pronounce a blessing over a congregation and over an individual. You may watch it on the Cathedral's Facebook page, its YouTube account, and at saintmarks.org/video
