EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

CHRISTMAS EVE

December 24, 2024

11:00 PM

SAINT MARK'S
EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Saint Mark's Cathedral acknowledges that we gather on the traditional land of the first people of Seattle, the Duwamish People, who are still here, and we honor with gratitude the land itself and the life of all the Coast Salish tribes.

WELCOME

On this happy feast of Christmas, we welcome you to Saint Mark's Cathedral. We are glad you have joined us to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. Thank you for sharing your Christmas hopes and joy with us. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, and whether you are joining in the nave or via the livestream, you are welcome here!

QUESTIONS?

Ushers (wearing purple Welcome laynards) are available during the liturgy should you have any questions or concerns, or if you need a hearing assist device.

All-gender restrooms are in the northwest stairwell and on the 5th floor of Cathedral House, accessible by elevator or via the southwest stairwell.

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT SAINT MARK'S

If you are new to Saint Mark's and would like to learn more, please consider completing a newcomer form, visit saintmarks.org/newcomers or simply contact one of the clergy. Grace and peace to you!

CAROL

The first Nowell

TUNE: The First Nowell; arr. Sir David Willcocks

- All sing* 1. The first No - well the an-gel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
Treble voices only 2. They look - ed up and saw a star shining in the east be - yond them far,
All sing 3. And by the light of that same star three wise men came from coun - try far;
Low voices only 4. This star drew nigh to the northwest, o'er Beth - le - hem it took its rest, Choir alone 5. Then en - tered in those wise men three full rev - erent - ly up - on their knee,
All sing 6. Then let us all with one ac - cord sing prais - es to our heaven - ly Lord;

1. in fields as they lay, keeping their sheep, on a cold winter's night that was so deep.
2. and to the earth it gave great light, and so it con-tin-ued both day and night.
3. to seek for a king was their in - tent, and to fol-low the star wher-ev-er it went.
4. and there it did both stop and stay right o - ver the place where Je - sus lay.
5. and of - fered there in his pre-sence their gold, and myrrh, and frank - in - cense.
6. that hath made heaven and earth of nought, and with his blood our life hath bought.

Refrain (All sing)
No - well, No - well, No - well, No - well, born is the King of Is - ra - el!

CHOIR

Psallite

WORDS: Trad. Latin, English by John Rutter; MUSIC: Michael Praetorius

Psallite unigenito!

Christo Dei filio,

Redemptori Domino,

Puerulo iacenti in praesepio.

Sing Psalms to the only-begotten!

To Christ the Son of God,

To the Redeemer, the Lord,

To the little baby lying in a manger.

Lo, in a manger bed there lies an infant small.

Angel hosts their homage pay before the Lord of all,
low before him fall.

Psallite...

"Glory to God on high" the choirs of angels sing;
"Peace on earth, good-will to all" their voices echoing, praise the newborn King.

Psallite...

CHOIR

In the bleak midwinter

WORDS: Christina Rossetti; MUSIC: Harold Darke

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter
Long ago.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign:
In the bleak mid-winter
A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty,
Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him, whom cherubim
Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk
And a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him, whom angels
Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel
Which adore.

What can I give Him,
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb,
If I were a wise man
I would do my part,
Yet what I can I give Him,
Give my heart.

CHOIR*On Christmas night*

WORDS & MUSIC: The Sussex Carol, arr. Philip Ledger

On Christmas night all Christians sing, to hear the news the angels bring:
news of great joy, news of great mirth,
news of our merciful King's birth.

When sin departs before his grace,
then life and health come in its place;
angels and we with joy may sing,
all for to see the newborn King.

Then why should we on earth be so sad,
since our Redeemer made us glad,
when from our sin he set us free,
all for to gain our liberty?

All out of darkness we have light,
which made the angels sing this night:
"Glory to God and peace on earth,
now and for evermore. Amen"

INTROIT

From heaven above to earth I come

WORDS: Martin Luther, tr. Lutheran Book of Worship, 1978;

MUSIC: Vom Himmel hoch, melody from 16th century German hymnal, harm. J. S. Bach

From heaven above to earth I come to bring good news to everyone!
Glad tidings of great joy I bring to all the world, and gladly sing:

to you this night is born a child of Mary, chosen virgin mild;
this newborn child of lowly birth shall be the joy of all the earth.

As a gathered community, we join together in praising God in song.

OPENING ACCLAMATION

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 355

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Presider ALmighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Gloria, or some other song of praise, centers the service on the Holy One we gather to praise in our worship.

SONG OF PRAISE Angels we have heard on high (stanzas 1 & 3)

The collect is the prayer designated for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

COLLECT OF THE DAY The Nativity of our Lord

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 212

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The first reading is usually drawn from the Hebrew Scriptures, inviting us to trace our heritage in God's historical covenant with the People of God.

READING

Isaiah 62:6-12

UPON YOUR WALLS, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels;

all day and all night
they shall never be silent.

You who remind the LORD,
take no rest,

and give him no rest
until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth.

The LORD has sworn by his right hand
and by his mighty arm:

I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink the wine
for which you have labored;

but those who garner it shall eat it
and praise the LORD,

and those who gather it shall drink it
in my holy courts.

Go through, go through the gates,
prepare the way for the people;

build up, build up the highway,
clear it of stones,
lift up an ensign over the peoples.

The LORD has proclaimed
to the end of the earth:

Say to daughter Zion,
"See, your salvation comes;

his reward is with him,
and his recompense before him."

They shall be called, "The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the LORD";

and you shall be called, "Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Assembly Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is a sung response to the previous reading. Psalms are the songbook of the Hebrew Scriptures. They express every emotion known to humankind.

PSALM

Psalm 97 ♦ St. Helena Psalter

Anglican Chant (Walter Parratt)

Sung by the choir.

Dominus regnavit

YOU REIGN, O God; let the earth rejoice; *
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
Clouds and darkness are round about you; *
righteousness and justice are the foundations of your throne.
A fire goes before you *
and burns up your enemies on every side.
Your lightnings light up the world; *
the earth sees it and is afraid.
The mountains melt like wax at your presence, O God, *
at your presence, O God of the whole earth.
The heavens declare your righteousness, *
and all the peoples see your glory.
Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight in false gods! *
Let all gods bow down before you.
Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, *
because of your judgments, O God.
For you are God,
most high over all the earth; *
you are exalted far above all gods.
You love those who hate evil; *
you preserve the lives of your saints and deliver them from the hand of the wicked.
Light has sprung up for the righteous * and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.
Rejoice in God, you righteous, *
and give thanks to God's holy Name.

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

READING

Titus 3:4-7

WHEN the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus's words and actions.

Please remain standing, as able, for the proclamation of the Gospel.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Luke 2:1-20 (King James Version)

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

AND IT came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace, good will toward men!"

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, "Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us." And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The homily directly follows the Gospel because it is grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 CE and confirmed in 381 CE, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity.

All stand, as able.

THE NICENE CREED

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary;
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. Each week, we pray for the Universal Church, the nation and its leaders, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE After each petition:

Intercessor Holy God,
People hear our prayer.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect; all respond: Amen.

The exchange of peace within the gathered community is an ancient Christian practice. It is a sign of reconciliation, love, and renewed relationships prior to coming to God's table for Eucharist.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness, and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the mystery and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

OFFERTORY

An offering of money is received. Everyone participating in worship is invited to make an offering in gratitude for God's generosity. Together, these gifts make possible this community of welcome, reconciliation and service. Those worshipping in person may place their offering in baskets as they are passed through the rows.

ANTHEM

A babe is born

WORDS: 15th-cent. English; MUSIC: William Mathias

A babe is born all of a may,
To bring salvation unto us.
To him we sing both night and day.
Veni Creator Spiritus. (Come creator Spirit.)

At Bethlehem, that blessed place,
The child of bliss now born he was;
And him to serve God give us grace,
O lux beata Trinitas. (O Trinity of blessed light.)

There came three kings out of the East,
To worship the King that is so free,
With gold and myrrh and frankincense,
A solis ortus cardine. (From lands that see the sun arise.)

The angels came down with one cry,
A fair song that night sung they
In worship of that child:
Gloria tibi Domine. (Glory to the Lord.)

A babe is born all of a may,
To bring salvation unto us.
To him we sing both night and day.
Noel!

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a lengthy prayer with several intentions. We recount the story of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning "Lift up your hearts."

All stand, as able.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer B, adapt.

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

Presider  The Lord be with you.	Assembly  And al-so with you.
Presider  Lift up your hearts.	Assembly  We lift them to the Lord.
Presider  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.	Assembly  It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every where to give thanks to you, the Maker of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect in the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS sung by all

William Mathias

Organ: 	Everyone:
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of po- wer and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Presider We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. Through Mary's Holy Child, you have delivered us from evil and made us worthy to stand before you. You have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God:

All We remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Dear One; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, gather all things into the circle of Christ's love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with Mary, Mark, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of all your children; through Jesus Christ, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Most Blessed One, now and for ever.

The Great Amen unites the congregation in one great voice as we concur with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only "AMEN" in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the importance of the congregation's response.

All A - MEN.

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

In silence, the Presider breaks the consecrated bread.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All may be seated for the time of Communion. All seeking God are welcome at Christ's Table.

Please follow the directions of the Liturgical Ministers. Bread and wine are distributed at four stations in the nave. The bread will be placed into your outstretched palm. If you prefer a gluten-free wafer, simply ask for one at the time of Communion. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please cross your arms in front of your chest.

Intinction (dipping the bread in the wine) is not available at this time. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please cross your arms in front of your chest as you pass by the chalice. The full grace of the sacrament is received with only the bread.

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung!
O Jesse's lineage coming,
as seers of old have sung.
It came, a blossom bright,
amid the cold of winter,
when half spent was the night.

As communion distribution comes to a close, the nave lights will be dimmed and liturgical ministers will bring candle light to the congregation.

When the time comes to light your candle, angle your unlit candle towards your neighbor's lit candle.

Once your candle is burning, keep it as upright as possible at all times to avoid dripping wax.

 Christ, the Sa - vior, is born! — Christ, the Sa - vior, is born!
 Je - sus, Lord, at thy birth, — Je - sus, Lord, at thy birth.

Before concluding the service, we give thanks to God for the gifts received, and the Presider pronounces a blessing in God's name upon the assembly. A closing hymn and the dismissal conclude the liturgy.

All stand, as able.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 365

Presider Eternal God, heavenly Father,
All you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL BLESSING

Bishop Our help is in the Name of the Lord.
People The maker of heaven and earth.
Bishop Blessed be the Name of the Lord.
People From this time forth for ever more.
Bishop The blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.
All Amen.
